

Barcelona, September 2-5, 2026

Universitat de Barcelona
Facultat de Geografia i Història
Room 1FH

THE CITIES THAT MADE THE EMPIRE: CONNECTIVITY AND URBAN NETWORKS FROM LATE REPUBLICAN TO IMPERIAL TIMES

Bienvenida y presentación del panel

13:40-13:45

Ignasi Garcés Estallo (Universitat de Barcelona) y Borja Martín Chacón (Sorbonne Université),
Mobility and Social Promotion in the Roman City of Aeso (Isona, Pallars Jussà, Catalonia)

13:45-14:15

Arnau Lario Devesa (Universitat de Barcelona),
Connecting Cities from Inside: Work-Related Mobility between (and within) Roman Cities from Iberia

14:15-14:45

Maria Luisa Bonsangue (Université de Picardie Jules Verne),
City, Town, and Port Society: the Case of Narbo Martius

14:45-15:15

Pausa de café

15:15-15:45

Alfredo Tosques (Università di Bologna),
The View from Sicily: Sicilian Cities and Their Role in Roman Hegemony

15:45-16:15

Carmen Alarcón Hernández (Universidad de Sevilla) y Manuel Ruiz Román (Universidad Pablo de Olavide),
A Network of Ceremonial Cities: The Cases of Tarraco and Athens in the Age of Hadrian

16:15-16:45

Jean-Yves Marc (Université de Strasbourg),
The Hadrian's Panhellenion in Athens: A Political and Cultural Network to Organize the Greek World

16:45-17:15

Tom Gavin (University of Oxford),
Homonoia Coinage and inter-City Connectivity in Roman Asia Minor

17:15-17:45

Conclusiones y clausura

17:45

Coordinadores: Noelia Cases Mora (Universidad de Alicante) – Borja Martín Chacón (Sorbonne Université)
– Sabine Panzram (Universität Hamburg)